L. H. Office Castle
25th Sept 1865

Dear Mrs Wilder

Many thanks for your kind invitation and Mr Wilders for Sunday which only reached me yesterday morning Journal from Cork when I shall Leave for Devond days. Let me Congratulate you on the termination and Result of Wilders labors.
Had I been in town I would have had much pleasure in accepting your obliging invitation. I wish I could make an attempt to appear to your Muse for the and of a few

Stirring lines on Fanaticism on the same allusions to two names of worthy Gentlemen deceased long time ago - Proteus and Prometheus with whose Multifarious forms ~~I~~ " in one Cave and bubble bursters with the Laundry Rhymes on Rhubarb which I make mention of - honorable of Course —

James Dean Gardner

per Jun Agent

Pro Tho Buckley

DSI

De Meeldere

the Author

DS

L. F. Office. Cash
Thursday

My dear Wilde

I only came back from Cork yesterday - Argal "I could not dine with you on Sunday. Many thanks for the Census. You have certainly accomplished a great work. And deserve well all the fame you will get by it. You have won it with great labor and with all my heart I hope you may enjoy it long. There are half a dozen sentences about the Jesuits throughout, at random which will be grateful to our English Masters and Coadjutors which had I been beside you when you were working - I would have given you elbow a devil of a nudge to have dashed out. But there is little for any good Irishman or Irishwoman but faint thanks and much very much indeed to be thankful for in your

R. R. Madden

Dr Shedden

The Author